

Update on Reporting of Withholding Income Tax Article 21 Based on DFD-2/D-1/2024

Update on Reporting of Withholding Income Tax Article 21 Based on PER-2/PJ/2024

On January 19, 2024, the Directorate General of Taxes (DJP) issued Regulation PER - 2/PJ/2024 (PER-2). This regulation introduces new forms and procedures for reporting tax deductions on individual payments based on Article 21 and Article 26 of the Income Tax Law (WHT21/26) and became effective from January 1, 2024.

Summary of Key Changes

- 1
- The transition from a desktop-based electronic reporting application to a web-based application.
- 2
- Adjustments to form formats and addition of new forms to accommodate requirements from Government Regulation No. 58/2023 and Minister of Finance Regulation No. 168/2023 (PMK-168).
- 3
- Use the National Identification Number (NIK) to replace the Taxpayer Identification Number (NPWP).

Detail of Changes to Forms

New Forms: Form 1721-VIII

Companies are required to provide Form 1721-VIII to permanent employees monthly. The delivery of Form 1721-VIII to permanent employees must be made no later than the end of the month following the deduction month. The transition period in January 2024 can be provided no later than March 31, 2024.

Updated Forms: Form 1721-VI, Form 1721-VII, and Form 1721-A1

- Form 1721-VI changed the title of the Tax Object Code (KOP) in accordance with PMK 169 of 2023.
 - "DISTRIBUTOR MULTILEVEL MARKETING (MLM)" will be changed to "DISTRIBUTOR PEMASARAN BERJENJANG".
 - "PETUGAS DINAS LUAR ASURANSI" will be renamed "AGEN ASURANSI".
 - The "BUKAN PEGAWAI YANG MENERIMA IMBALAN YANG BERSIFAT BERKESINAMBUNGAN" will be removed from the KOP.
 - The title "BUKAN PEGAWAI YANG MENERIMA IMBALAN YANG TIDAK BERSIFAT BERKESINAMBUNGAN" will be changed to "BUKAN PEGAWAI LAINNYA".
- 2. Form 1721-VII is used as evidence of tax deduction for the final Article 21 tax, including total payments of severance pay, retirement benefits, and full pension benefits. The form format remains unchanged, focusing on updating the information presentation.
- 3. Form 1721-A1 is the annual evidence of tax deduction for Article 21 tax for permanent employees, retirees, or regular pension beneficiaries.

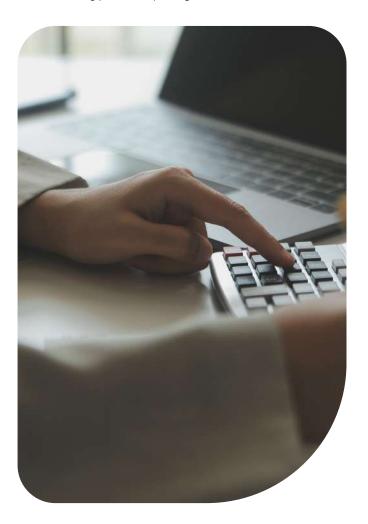

Modifications to Form 1721-A1 include:

- Addition of columns for mandatory religious alms/ donations paid through employers.
- Add columns designed to accommodate potential tax

- incentives (Government-borne Tax/GBT) on Article 21 tax deducted in previous periods.
- Columns for Article 21 and Article 26 tax deductions settled at a time other than in the last tax period are added, related to monthly Article 21 tax deductions based on the Effective Average Rate (TER) enforced by PMK-168.

This new section details an employee's Article 21 tax deductions throughout the year, including monthly deductions and final adjustments for the end of the year or last working period. Considering the monthly nature of Article 21 tax based on estimated tax rates, these changes significantly impact Article 21 tax at the year's end or the previous working period. According to PER-2, evidence of tax deduction must be created electronically using a web-based application called e-Bupot 21/26 on the DJP portal. The use of e-Bupot 21/26 is mandatory starting in January 2024, but paper forms are still allowed in certain situations.

This digital transformation is expected to improve tax reporting efficiency and convenience. However, it is essential to remember that personal information security and employee payroll remain priorities. Therefore, DJP provides a separate portal to separate users with detailed information access from those who only perform reporting tasks.
